GARNACHA 2018

« A floral and energetic Garnacha grown at 1030 meters height and aged in old foudres »

DESCRIPTION

We work with sustainably cultivated, dry-farmed bush vines in traditional mountain vineyards. Our wines are crafted in small quantities and aged in historic caves. Saint Frontonio, a martyr whose decapitated head was found going upriver, symbolises our spirit of swimming against the tide.

Growing area: Limestone and sand

Altitude: 1030m

Inclination: North, 15%

Age of vines: +80years

Harvest

Sept. 30th hand-picking in 18 kg bins

Ageing

12 months in 2,500l. foudres and used barrels

TASTING NOTES

The freshness of the Garnacha to its full extent. Growing at 1030 meters height provides the grapes with its herbal and floral aromas, its delicacy and consistency. A wine with a silky and energetic texture. Long, complex and smooth.
